Woolwich Contemporary Print Fair continues on Artsy!

The Online Edition | until 28 November | woolwichprintfair.com

Woolwich Contemporary Print Fair closes its doors after the most successful year yet, with an incredible 7,500 visitors. But it's not over yet! We are delighted to announce that the art will continue online via our partnership with Artsy, the largest global online marketplace for buying, selling and discovering art by leading artists.

Art lovers can continue their quest to #FindArtThatFits online, using Artsy's advanced search and filtering functionalities to cater for budget, aesthetic and personal needs. The AR mobile tool enables collectors to even view works on their home walls. Find art from WCPF's curated hang, as well as from all the 2021 exhibiting partners - that's 1000 artworks to explore, discover and collect.

In conjunction with the Artsy partnership, Woolwich Contemporary Print Fair launches The Online Edition today, full of free and fascinating talks from leading Collectors, Curators & Creatives. Last night kicked off with a sold-out talk Pushing the Possibilities of Print in collaboration with Dulwich Picture Gallery and She Curates. ## The Online Edition 15 - 28 November | Highlights

BIID Interiors Talk | Monday 22 November 19.00

In partnership with the British Institute of Interior Design, Architect & Interior Designer Nancy Gouldstone will join BIID Senior Designer Matthew Freeman to discuss how they integrate art into their design projects, both in a corporate and domestic context.

Motherhood & Making: Re-emerging after the storm | Wednesday 24 November 19.00

With so much emphasis on the young emerging artist, it's easy to forget that maintaining recognition isn't always straightforward. Artists of every age have to respond to change, pausing to adapt their working practices, often re-emerging stronger than ever. In this online conversation, Katherine Oliver of Oliver Projects is joined by celebrated artists Kemi Onabule, Heidrun Rathgeb & Sadie Tierney, who will be discussing how their work has developed in response to different periods in their lives such as parenthood.

Studio Mirabeau Wine Tasting | Thursday 25 November 19.00

Step into Studio Mirabeau! Join Mirabeau co-founder, Jeany Cronk, and WCPF Directors, Jack Bullen & Lizzie Glendinning, for a wine tasting as they talk through the curation of the Mirabeau collection, and their on-going efforts to support the arts. Make sure you've got your glass at the ready so you can make the most of Jeany's tasting notes.
